

The Office of Culture of Consell de Formentera is pleased to report that at 5.00pm, next Thursday 9 March, Laura Mandarinina will perform "Cuentos desenvueltos", the second instalment of a storytelling series organised jointly with La Panera Vermella, at the Reading Spot (Punt de Lectura) in the Espai Cultural de Sant Ferran. This event is geared toward children aged 3 to 12.

The books that make up the educational part of "Cuentos desenvueltos" have been chosen for their significance in the lives of children, copies sold and psychological and emotional characteristics, physical attributes and roles of characters, as well as symbolism promoting gender equality, as the author explains.

Some of the titles mentioned are: "El príncipe Serafín" by Raquel Díez, "Yo voy Conmigo" by Raquel Díaz Reguera, "Las princesas también se echan pedos" by Illan Brennann and "Daniela Pirata" by Susana Isern Gómez. The common thread of the session is children's participatory comical magic, namely, through various magic tricks in which children will participate, the titles of the stories that will be told afterwards will appear.

The second storyteller in the series is Laura Muñoz, an actress who graduated from the Buenos Aires' Dramatic Art Conservatory in 1996. She participated in several plays in the Argentine capital and, in 2002, travelled to Spain, where in 2005 she founded her own theatre company called MundoMandarina, where she creates, produces and performs her own shows. She has also collaborated with the "Clowns in rebellion" and "Clowns without borders" expeditions. Currently, she writes stories and teaches storytelling, magic, clown and laughter therapy workshops.
