

Today Ana Juan, president of the Consell de Formentera, and Manolo de Oya, president of Trampolí Mecànic, have signed a collaboration agreement on culture for 2023. Vanessa Parellada, culture councillor, was also at the signing.

The Consell de Formentera will give the association up to €10,000 to spearhead exhibitions, concerts, demos, meetings and artistic residencies in 2023 to strengthen the local cultural offer. The money may also be used to organise workshops, courses, conferences and other educational activities, and to fund participation in collaborative actions with other associations working in social and cultural action.
